Two Persons Die in Accidents in Hempstead

Separate accidents in widely separated parts of Hempstead County took the lives of two persons last night.

About 6:30 p.m. on Highway 4, about a mile north of Washington, a three year old Negro boy, Troy Wayne Williams, ran into the path of an auto driven by Shelby Stokes, 22, of Cullendale, Ark. He was killed almost instantly.

The investigation continues and a coroner's inquest is scheduled for 2 p.m. Monday, it was announced by Rufus Herndon Jr., coroner. Investigating were Mr. Herndon, State Officer Guy Downing and Deputy Sheriff Bill Gentry.

Later last night at about 10:45 p.m., an auto driven by Paul N. Goodwin, 47, of Cotton Valley, La., failed to negotiate a curve on Highway 29, some 12 miles south of Hope, and overturned. Investigating officers said Mr. Goodwin was pinned under the auto. He died shortly after the accident.

Investigating were State Officers Downing and Porterfield and Coroner Rufus Herndon.

Top Reds Are Trying to Iron Out Confusion

By WILLIAM SEXTON

LONDON (UP) — West Europe's top Communist leaders were meeting here and in Rome today to puzzle out the Kremlin's new anti-Stalin line that has thrown the Communist party into convulsions of confusion.

In London, British Communist Leader Harry Pollitt ignored Moscow's new anti-Stalin line as he opened a national party congress — the first held outside the Iron Curtain since the Soviet switch. There were rumors he may be fitted.

Maurice Thorez, leader of the big French Communist party, turned up in Rome and was expected to meet secretly today with Italian Communist Party Boss Palmiro Togliatti to try to prevent wholesale defections from their ranks. Theirs are the biggest Communist parties in the free world.

The Communists in Italy and France already have shown confusion over Soviet Party Chief Nikita Khrushchev's denunciation of Josef Stalin at the Communist Congress in Moscow recently. The confusion was reflected in Turin when the Communists suffered a heavy defeat last night in an election of shop stewards at the great Fiat auto and aviation works.

The confusion apparently reached inside the Iron Curtain. At the East German party Congress Sunday, political member Karl Schirdewan disclosed that the anti-Stalin line led to "attempts by enemies to separate the mass of the party from the party leadership and belittle Walter Ulbrich," Ulbrich is the "Khrushchev" of East Germany.

Blood Pressure Hardens Arteries

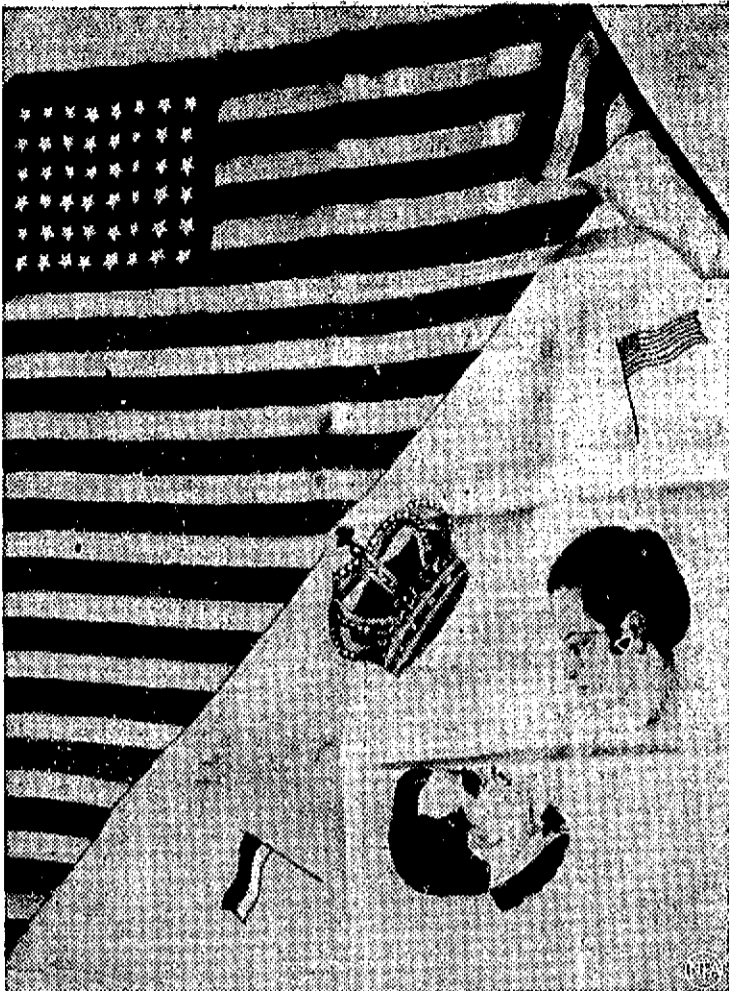

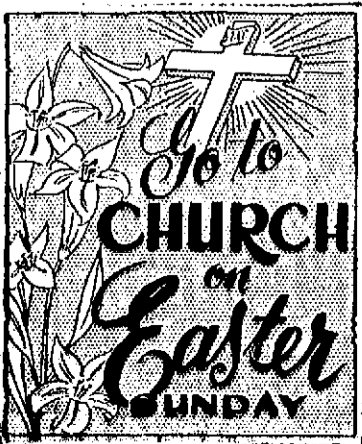

ST. LOUIS (UP) — A 10-year research project singles out fluctuating blood pressure from emotional tension as the chief cause of hardening of the arteries, which causes more deaths in the United States than any other disease.

The conclusion, which differs from that of most authorities, was reported yesterday by Dr. Herman T. Blumenthal, director of the Jewish Hospital laboratory and a member of the research team here.

Most doctors believe hardening of the arteries results from a fatty substance, known as cholesterol, in the blood vessels. Research elsewhere has produced evidence to support this belief.

"This is not true," Dr. Blumenthal said in an interview. "It is the extent of the pressure of the blood against the walls of the arteries that causes them to harden."

He said the emotional strain under which Americans live makes them susceptible to the disease.

READY FOR THE BIG DAY—Manufacturers in Monaco have been working overtime to turn out souvenirs for the Grace Kelly-Prince Rainier III wedding, April 18. This silk scarf is one of them. It bears a likeness of Monaco's sovereign and his bride-to-be. United States and Monacan emblems are also featured.

Many Retrace Pilgrimage to Jerusalem

By WILTON WYNN

JERUSALEM, Jordan Sector (UP) — Thousands of persons gathered today in the Old City of Jerusalem to retrace the Way of the Cross in the annual Good Friday pilgrimage.

The winding route of the massive procession follows the path from the place of Christ's trial to his tomb. It was another major event in the pre-Easter observance which began Palm Sunday.

Casting ominous overtones over the celebration where the Israeli-Arab tensions starkly represented by the division of this old holy city.

Guns along the frontier dividing the city between Israel and Jordan were still. But some Holy Week observances were curtailed, and residents of Arab Jerusalem complained that war jitters had kept visitors away. Hotel facilities were booked solid from yesterday through Easter Sunday in the Old City but the extra accommodations required in past years were not needed this Easter season.

The chief Easter sites are on the Arab side of the line dividing Jerusalem, but a ceremony commemorating the Last Supper had to stop short last night because of the division of the city. Normally a procession of Christians goes from St. Saviour's Church inside the old walled city to Cenacle, the site of the upper room where Christ ate his last meal with his disciples. Cenacle is on the Israeli side, however, and the pilgrimage went only as far as St. Mark's Church inside the Arab Christian quarter.

Starting point on the Way of the Cross is the courtyard of a Moslem school, the site where Christ was condemned by Pontius Pilate. The second of 4 hallowed spots along to route is the place where Christ received the cross. Others commemorate his struggle beneath the weight of the cross, the place where tradition holds that his mother watched him pass, and the long ascent to Calvary.

From the place where the body was taken from the cross, the route leads to the Holy Sepulcher. A symbolic service tonight will carry out the burial of a statue of Christ in the Holy Sepulcher.

Tavern's Beer Permit Suspended

LITTLE ROCK, (Special) — The Alcoholic Beverage Control Department has placed the beer permit issued to Mrs. Roberta S. Kasoff, for Whispering Pines Lodge, route 4, Hot Springs on 90-day suspension because of beer sales on Sunday.

Director Rolla Fitch refused a request for a location transfer of a beer permit held by Fred Wilson, 403 Benton St., Hot Springs.

An off-premises beer permit with chilling privileges was granted Richard Henry Helms, 3rd and Woods Sts., Texarkana, but wine and beer permits were refused Jaycee Williams, 415 Lincoln St., Texarkana.

R. J. Agee, Camden, was denied a beer permit. An application from Ernest Paul, Mahfouz, Stuttgart, for reactivation and transfer of beer permit was refused as was a new beer permit application from Elizabeth Leonic McGoff Stuttgart.

Flynn Questioned in Narcotics Case

LOS ANGELES (UP) — Actor Errol Flynn and one of his former mothers-in-law were subpoenaed in connection with a federal narcotics investigation of doctor's prescriptions.

The actor and Mrs. Marge Edgington were questioned yesterday by George H. White, regional supervisor of the Narcotics Bureau. White declined comment except to say that the investigation concerns narcotics prescriptions issued by "one or more doctors."

Flynn told newsmen he didn't know what the investigation was about and added: "Who can read a doctor's prescription?"

Two Injured in Baytown Explosion

BAYTOWN, Tex. (UP) — A spectacular explosion last night blasted a gaping hole in an oil tanker taking on kerosene at a dock. Orange flames roared 300 feet into the sky.

Two crewmen were sent to hospital. Most of the ship's 42-man crew were on shore leave. The explosion of the 10,000-ton tanker Esso Patterson rocked the oil and chemical city on the industry-lined Houston ship canal. It was felt in suburban Houston 25 miles away.

The flames were extinguished in an hour, but in the meantime there was never panic here. Residents vividly remembered the ship explosion in nearby Texas City that killed at least 510 people in 1947.

The Esso Patterson was at a dock of the huge Humble Refinery. The blast ripped a hole 12 feet wide and 30 feet deep, extending from the water line to the deck, on the starboard side. Humble officials decided to estimate the loss but a crew member said the damage to the tanker was "heavy" with the ship's plates torn and bent.

The injured crewmen were Chief Mate Howard McCartney, 31, Lowell, Mass., and Seaman Jack L. Motro, 48, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Both jumped from the blazing ship to the dock 30 feet below. McCartney suffered a compound fracture of the left leg. Motro complained of severe abdominal pains.

Donald Ayers, 22, Hillsdale, Va., escaped uninjured by jumping into the channel and Petty Officer Samuel P. McRoberts, 60, reached safety by sliding down a hawser line to the dock. Most of the 42-man crew was on shore leave.

In February Smith ruled that the Arkansas Racing Commission must grant Southland Racing Corp. a permit to race dogs at its West Memphis track. Notice of an appeal to the Arkansas Supreme Court has been filed.

LOST THE ADDRESS

CHICAGO, (UP) — Montgomery Ward and Co. got a letter and $2 yesterday from a Saskatchewan, Canada, woman. She said she sent the company $2 in 1916 for one cowboy hat but received two of them.

"I had lost your address. That's why I didn't send it before," she said.

More Trouble Is Seen in Detroit Milk Strike

DETROIT (UP) — New and possibly dangerous trouble appeared brewing today in Michigan's week-old milk strike which has cut deeply into Detroit supplies.

Gov. G. Mennen Williams took cognizance of the situation in a warning that "no group of private citizens has any right to interfere with the free use of the roads or to constitute themselves into a private army to enforce their use of the roads."

The governor's warning followed reports that nonstriking farmers were contemplating moving milk trucks by force to Detroit processing plants from out-state.

Strikers insisted they would keep up their picketing to force the farmer's price of milk from $4.41 to $6.50 per hundred pounds, come what may.

Both strikers and nonstrikers are members of the Michigan Milk Producers Assn. The strikers, however, recently formed themselves into the Fair Share Bargaining Assn., expressing dissatisfaction with the older group's bargaining, but not withdrawing.

Both groups agree farmers aren't getting enough for milk in relation to work and production costs involved.

The Fair Share Bargaining Association began picketing two Detroit creameries Monday to support price demands. Picketing spread and by Thursday they had hemmed in trucks outside loaded with more than two million quarts destined for Detroit. Thursday night highway-roving pickets began dumping milk from trucks stopped on route to Detroit.

Gov. Williams told of the situation, but added that they will not be used as strike breakers and they will not take sides in the dispute.

Some milk trucks moved down Detroit streets under police escort yesterday.

Seeks to Pick Guilty in Era of Purges

VIENNA (UP) — The UKNITED States Information Agency is waging a pamphlet and leaflet campaign to fix partial guilt for the Stalin era purges on the Soviet Union's present leaders.

The agency has provided the U. S. embassies and information offices abroad with material for suggested leaflets titled "Some Honest Questions." The collective leadership of Stalin is outspoken nowadays in its bitter criticism of Stalin and the crime of the Stalin regime," the suggested text begins. Then it adds:

"But where were the indignant voices of Khrushchev, Malenkov and Bulganin in those last three decades? Where were the outraged cries against the cold-blooded purges? Fair-minded people are asking these questions. They have a right to know. They have a right to look at the record."

The Soviet purges of the 1920s, 1930s and 1940 as listed. Of Soviet Communist party chief Nikita S. Khrushchev, the message says: "As first secretary of the Ukrainian Communist party Khrushchev, in his own words, directed a purge of the 'enemies of the people.' For his efforts Stalin awarded Khrushchev the order of a Red Banner of Labor."

Similar charges of complicity, or submissive silence, are made against Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin and former Premier Georgi Malenkov.

State Revenues Show Increase

LITTLE ROCK (UP) — State revenue for the first nine months of the current fiscal year has reached a total of $8,084,305 compared to $7,449,609 for the corresponding period of last year.

The monthly report of revenue Commissioner J. Orville Cheney today showed that general revenue rose to $2,845,998 against $39,513, 322 last year.

Special revenues — those earmarked for funds other than the general revenue — were $59,239,310 against $34,975,287. The single item in general revenue — the application fee — was an increase of around $13,000 over the $2,771,907 in sales tax collections during the corresponding period last year.

THESE TOOK THE PRIZES—These odd-looking homemade hats are prize winners, believe it or not. Folks in Casper, Wyo., make the long, cold and stormy winters seem shorter by holding unusual contests. The oil-derrick hat at left symbolizes the main industry in the area. The one at upper right represents gardening and the other, made of doll-sized pots and pans, represents household activities. The designers are Mrs. Philip Kretz, left; Mrs. Philip Clark, upper right, and Mrs. Pat Alsop.

Congressman Norrell Gets Opposition

LITTLE ROCK (UP) — John H. Jones, a Pine Bluff attorney, qualified yesterday as an opponent of Rep. W. F. Norrell (D-Ark) in next summer's Democratic primary.

Jones filed his anti-corrupt practices pledge and paid his $750 ballot fee at the secretary of state's office. He announced as a candidate for the congressional seat last week.

Prosecutor Pat Mullis of Pine Bluff also has filed for Norrell's job. Norrell will seek renomination to a ninth term.

Further Farm Bill Action Is Delayed

BY EDWIN B. HAAKINSON

WASHINGTON (UP) — Farm bill conferees headed toward an Easter recess today, postponing at least until late next week final agreement on their recommendations to the House and Senate.

Chairman Ellender (D-La.) called another meeting of the five representatives and five senators who are compromising the major differences between bills passed by the two houses.

Prospects were that by mid-afternoon, however, they would call a halt until sometime next week. Congress adjourned yesterday until April 9, and cannot act before then on any agreement reached by the conferees.

Among agreement reached yesterday was one that wheat farmers have a choice in 1937 between price supports at 90 percent of parity and a Senate-approved "domestic parity" program. Parity is a price determined to be fair to farmers in relation to their costs.

The "domestic parity" program would promise commercial wheat growers 100 percent or full parity on that part of their crop used for domestic food. The remainder would be sold or supported at a lower level for export or livestock feed.

Ellender first told newsmen that conferees agreed wheat farmers could select between the two programs each year, with a two-thirds vote of the growers required to make one plan mandatory. He said today, however, he was mistaken in that.

"Now I find that if the domestic parity plan is approved it would operate from then on unless revised by Congress," the senator explained.

Texarkana Gets Bus Service

TEXARKANA (UP) — After three weeks without it, residents here had city bus service again yesterday.

American Transit Co., a St. Louis firm which has been granted a 10-year franchise to operate here, started its first buses on city routes.

The Missouri firm came in after Texarkana Transit Co. went out of business because of financial problems.

PSC Okays Hike in Phone Case

LITTLE ROCK (UP) — The Arkansas Public Service Commission today authorized Western Arkansas Telephone Co. of Russellville to increase its rates by an estimated $45,585.00.

The increase will go into effect April 1.

The commission agreed with the company that the increase was necessary to offset an increase in labor costs. Recent congressional action raised the minimum wage from 75 cents to one dollar an hour.

The commission today set for hearing at 2 p.m. Wednesday an application by the Arkansas Telephone Co. to acquire exchanges at Sulton and Texarkana. Under the application filed yesterday, Allied would obtain for around $70,000 all the stock of the Service Corp., which now owns the exchanges.

Ike Still Will Not Recognize Communist China

WASHINGTON (UP) — President Eisenhower reportedly has stated—in emphatic terms—American refusal to recognize Communist China or to approve its admission to the United Nations.

Informants said yesterday the matter was raised by Canadian leaders during the little summit talks earlier this week at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va. Mexican leaders also took part in the international conference, but representatives were not involved in the U.S.-Canadian discussions on China.

Eisenhower was said to have worded his rejection of any change in U. S. policy toward Red China in virtually the same way he had stated this government's position during a meeting with British Prime Minister Eden two months earlier.

Persons in a position to know what went on in the brief Canadian-American talk said Eisenhower asserted that American opinion would not tolerate recognition of the "Peiping regime" or U. S. acceptance of Red China membership in the U. N.

Canadian Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson, Canada's minister of external affairs, were said not to have pressed the point in the talk which reportedly were carried on in a friendly tone.

Gradual Plan of Integration Recommended

HOT SPRINGS (UP) — A plan of gradual racial integration recommended last night by a special committee which the School Board selected to report on the problem.

While the 22-member committee urged a "moderate and gradual" program—starting with a high school class—it also called for a start toward integration at the beginning of the next term.

School Supt. Imron Bruce said the committee's recommendation would be offered to the board for consideration at a May meeting. The board isn't bound to accept the proposal.

Only 13 members of the committee were present at last night's meeting, but all of them voted for the integration proposal. The vote came after Dr. Bruce told the members that school officials and citizens "have a responsibility" to comply with the Supreme Court's order to end racial segregation in public schools.

Under the committee's proposal integration would be started by a fall in a high school auto mechanics class. The class would be open to Negroes and whites as volunteers for it.

So far only three of the more than 400 school districts in Arkansas have integrated the races in compliance with the Supreme Court's order to end racial segregation in public schools.

So far only three of the more than 400 school districts in Arkansas have integrated the races in compliance with the Supreme Court decision. Integration was accomplished without trouble at Fayetteville and Charleston in the west Arkansas where the Negro population is small.

However, when the races were mixed in the schools at Hot Springs and Arkansas town, the move met off a wave of opposition which still hasn't subsided. Neither the Hot Springs Schools still are integrated.

NEWARK, N.J. (UP) — J. Brannigan, 49, of New York, asked Magistrate Nicholas Canino yesterday to dismiss a charge against him so he could enjoy the blooms of spring in England.

"You'll have to wait until spring," Castellano said, days in jail.

Kefauver and Stevenson Go All-Out

LOS ANGELES, (UP) — Adlai Stevenson's all-out attack on Sen. Estes Kefauver today turned the California Democratic presidential primary into the nation's hottest political battlefield.

Stevenson carried his fight for California's 68 delegates to the state today on the heels of his free-swinging assault on the Tennessee senator.

Stevenson scheduled a news conference and TV and street rally appearances in Los Angeles before leaving by plane for San Francisco.

The importance of victory in the California primary for Stevenson's presidential hopes, hit hard by his upset loss to Kefauver in the Minnesota primary, was underscored by his attack last night on the senator.

Democratic national convention to campaigning tactics are hurting the Democratic party and helping the Republicans.

He said in a local TV address that Kefauver falsely had pictured Stevenson charged Kefauver's and California as "sinister political bosses who are trying to dictate the people's choice."

Chapter XXX

The Arkadia was neither fast nor trim. She was an outsize mud scow and Mike wondered if she was seaworthy.

The cabin held four bunks and could see up the ladder topside.

Mike began to feel a certain security. So far, Julius Chesney had delivered. Somehow, Chesney knew of the Stergiou list. Perhaps he was over-dramatizing his love of drachmas, for Mike knew that, his capture by the Germans would have brought Chesney ten times the passage money. Mike also felt an instinctive trust in the silent skipper, Antonis.

At the dock gates of Piraeus there had not been so much as a raised eyebrow from the guards when Mike had passed through the passage money. Mike also felt an instinctive trust in the silent skipper, Antonis.

"Look, I don't make it a habit of drinkin' with New Zealanders, but I like the cut of you," Ben pulled a bottle from his jacket.

The level of the bottle moved downward quickly. Ben scratched his head, looked at the empty bottle and flipped it over the rail. "I shoulda knowed better" to drink with a Kiwi.

Suddenly Antonis took his foot from the rail and stood tense, as if listening. Mike poked Ben in the ribs and they both stared hard. The distant sound of a motor reached their ears.

Mike and Ben stumbled to their feet and went fore beside Antonis. "Let's get moving," Masterton said.

"Hold still," Antonis ordered. "They may turn away." Mike felt his guts turn over. A minute passed, and the motor seemed to fade away. Suddenly it became louder and louder.

"I say let's get underway!" Masterton roared with the sweat pouring down his face.

The boat was coming close now. They could see its outline about 400 yards to the starboard side. Yichiel and Elpis scrambled topside, bug-eyed in terror. The girl buried her head in the boy's chest.

A siren shrieked. A flash of light streaked across the water. It settled on the Arkadia and caught the five of them in its beam. The motor roared in joy.

"Arkadia!" a voice boomed in the darkness, "Stand by to be boarded."

A semicircle of German soldiers at fixed bayonets waited on the dock as the patrol boat eased in. Mike was stupefied with fear. A wave of nausea swept through him as he set foot on the pier. He closed his eyes dizzily. Ben's strong hand gripped his shoulder.

A caged truck drove up. The five were thrown in. A covey of armed cars escorted the truck. Sterns cleared a path and the convoy sped from the docks onto the highway toward Athens.

Fool — fool! Madness to do business with Julius Chesney! Elpis sobbed in the arms of her sorrowful father, Yichiel. But Antonis showed no anxiety. He puffed his pipe complacently and stared through the barred door at the rear of the truck.

The convoy arrived at the outskirts of Athens. "Where will that take us?" Mike whispered hoarsely. "Averof Prison," Ben said. "Get a hold on yourself, matey, they're all bluff."

The five captives were taken to a room with walls and floors of stone. Arrayed about them were two dozen brown-shirted Nazis armed with pistols and clubs.

Dear Miss Dix: I recently remarried after 10 years of widowhood. I have my savings entrusted to two married daughters. My husband has put all his money and property under both our names. Now he thinks this is unfair to him. Do you think this was the right thing for me to do?

Around the World

TOKYO, (UP) — A Syrian purchasing mission disclosed today it has agreed to buy $2,000,000 worth of goods from Japanese firms.

It denied emphatically any armaments were involved.

The two-man delegation said there was "no truth" to published reports that they were in Japan to negotiate arms purchases for the Syrian government.

Zairi Tayara and Cesar Atallah said they were in Japan in a private capacity representing Tayara & Co., an engineering and trading firm of Damascus.

"Our government restricts private firms to their own business," Tayara said. "She never asks any private firm to act in her behalf. When she wants to negotiate, she can do it through official missions or through diplomats."

LONDON, (UP) — Moscow radio claimed last night that the Icelandic parliament's vote demanding a change in the agreement for U. S. air bases in Iceland was a symptom of pro-Russian sentiments.

"This agreement was forced upon Iceland under the pretext against non-existent threat of attack from the USSR," the broadcast said.

"However, facts have unmasked these false arguments. In the five years which elapsed since the agreement was signed, the people of Iceland have been able to become convinced from practical experience of the friendly intentions of the USSR, which is successfully developing economic and cultural relations with Iceland."

"The U. S. ruling circles have used the agreement for their own military and political aims," the broadcast said.

LONDON, (UP) — Four British officers dismissed from Jordan's Arab Legion were looking for work today, but they did not know what kind. They inserted this advertisement in the London Times.

"Four colonels who have lately resigned or been dismissed from the Arab Legion at the same time as Gen. Sir John Glubb require employment. They are resolute, intelligent and capable men in their early forties and would appreciate suggestions."

VIENNA, Austria, (UP) — Austrian tourists may travel to Moscow by air for the first time beginning May 15, just one year after the Austrian state treaty was signed.

An Austrian travel office, in cooperation with the Soviet state travel office, has arranged for round trips to Moscow, Leningrad, Odessa, Yalta, Rostov and Stalingrad.

SAO PAULO, Brazil, (UP) — Authorities rushed plans today to evacuate 4,000 persons from areas where landslides and floods took four more lives yesterday.

The latest victims brought to 69 the death toll in the Sao Paulo-Santos area this month from slides and floods caused by torrential rains.

A "talking railroad gate" equipped with delicate microphones on German railroads opens and closes marriers and warns of approaching trains.

Plenty of Social Life Available to Teacher

Dear Miss Dix: I graduated from College last June and in September began teaching. I'm in a very desirable school and enjoy my work — but there life seems to end. In college I was very active; between studying and my social life I rarely had a free minute. Now everything has stopped except my job.

14 Jailed in Freight Burglaries

PARAGOULD, Mo. — A dozen teenaged boys and two men were arrested last night in connection with two separate freight car burglaries here.

Police Chief Sam Hunt said
Ralph Sharp, 27, and Gerland Ulley, 21, both of Paragould, were charged with burglary and grand larceny in connection with the theft of 21 sacks of fertilizer from a boxcar on a Missouri Pacific railroad siding. Hunt said the fertilizer, stolen Monday, was sold to a Leachville merchant for $30.

Hunt said he also had arrested a dozen teenagers in the theft of 12 cases of beer from a boxcar on a Cotton Belt siding Sunday.
The officer said some of the beer had been recovered from a water-filled ditch near here.

Sharp, at the time of his arrest, was free under $3,000 bond in a theft Feb. 14 of $700 from Quinn Lumber Co. here, Hunt said.

Leonard Ross Goes for the $20,000 Prize

By CHARLES MERCER
NEW YORK, N.Y. — Friends and associates of Leonard Ross back home in Tujunga, Calif., will be interested in knowing he's conducting himself with dignity during his New York sojourn, winning friends and influencing some people on their investments.

Tomorrow he returns to Big Surprise (NBC-TV), where he's going for $20,000 in his effort to work to the big $100,000 question. His category is stocks and the stock exchange.

The other day he spent a while at the New York Stock Exchange impressing officials with his wide-ranging knowledge of investments and amazing employees with his ability to read ticker symbols for scores of stocks. Then he spent a while in the financial room of the New York Public Library, where he's checking through 150 various volumes for obscure facts. No night club addict, he spends spare time scanning the financial pages of New York newspapers.

His suggestions on what to buy and what to sell are so persuasive that it probably would be unfair to the market equilibrium to report them. But the most persuasive thing about him is that he is 10 years old and hasn't the slightest inclination to seek a career in high finance.

"It's simply an interest," he says, fixing you with kindly, intelligent brown eyes and swinging small feet that fail to touch the floor. "I've been interested in investments since I was 7. My father is a CPA and has a few small investments."

Listening to him talk, I became interested and began following the market.

If not high finance, what does he plan as a career someday?

"I'd like to go into politics," Leonard said. Under further questioning he continued, "I'm a Democrat." Let's say that under present circumstances I'm a Democrat."

Having skipped three grades thus far, Leonard finds himself in seventh at the Cardozo High School. His favorite subject there is math, followed by social studies "at times."

Leonard's mother, Mrs. William Ross, a court stenographer, accompanied him to New York.

Order Against Gambling Permanent

HOT SPRINGS, Mo. — A temporary restraining order forbidding illegal gambling in Hot Springs night clubs was made permanent yesterday by Circuit Judge C. Floyd Huff.

Prosecutor H. A. Tucker filed petitions Feb. 21 asking for a court order to halt violation of state gambling and liquor laws.

Judge Huff's order will be effective for one year.

Tucker asked for the court order after State Police and aides of Atty. Gen. Tom Conway raided several clubs last month. Confiscated gambling equipment is being held here. Equipment seized in later raids was burned.

Rev. J. S. Morgan, Secretary, came to know.
Easter comes on the first Sunday following the first full moon after the vernal equinox. Therefore it can not come earlier than March 22, nor later than April 23.

Spring Revival At Munn's Chapel, Prescott
The Spring Revival will begin

Tennessee.

Coming And Going
Mrs. Pearl Frierson left Thursday night March 29 enroute to St.
Louis, Mo., where she will spend the Easter week-end with her brother Mr. Frank Montgomery and family.

Mrs. Frierson was accompanied by her daughter Miss Clementine Frierson and her two grandchildren, Volma Faye and Dennis Wayne Foster, who will visit their father, Mr. Donald Foster, and other relatives.

The annual Easter program of the Church of God in Christ will COONSKIN-COVERED GARAGE—Ash Campbell wasn't satisfied with just a plain, ordinary coonskin cap. After all, he and three other hunters bagged 114 raccoons this season, and that's a lot of caps for anybody. So the Fort Scott, Kan., hunter instead used the skins to cover one side of his garage and one half of the roof. He's shown above in front of the coonskin-covered garage with his four hunting dogs, Mike, Thunder, Ben and Sue.

Field & Stream

By JOE STETSON
Dog Editor
The recent recognition of the Rhodesian ridgeback as a pure breed by the American Kennel Club has created quite a stir—probably more than anything else because of the nickname "African lion dog."

This recent recognition is not an indication of a new breed. The Rhodesian ridgeback Club was formed in Southern Rhodesia in 1924 and quite a number of dogs were exported in the '30s, particularly to Britain.

The dogs are most probably the result of crosses of larger breeds such as Waxes and bloodhounds to native dogs with the possibility that the distinctive line of hair growing in the wrong direction along the spine could very likely have been inherited from the Pharaoh, the only other known pure breed to have this characteristic. The Pharaoh is an obscure German pointing breed seldom seen in recent times.

Courageous and loyal as dogs as this breed seem to be, it must not be thought that they, or any dog for that matter, are a match for a lion. Packs, however, have been used by some hunters to harass the lion until the hunter can get near enough for effective shooting.

Another confusing thing about the use of the name "lion dog" is that it has been applied for centuries to the Pekingese which was also referred to as dragon dog and Pekin palace dog.

A Tibetan relative is often referred to as the Tibetan lion dog.
These breeds weigh in at 10 pounds and would be more meat than match for a lion.

We find a lion's name kind of clip used on today's poodle and for many years on the Portuguese water dogs. It is interesting that "base reliefs" and other Egyptian art depicted dogs with lion clips. These latter were neither ancestors of the poodle nor fighters of the lion, but, I was dogs that were clipped like lions to add to the ferociousness of their appearance in battle.

Were they not clipped they would look much like the big, shaggy sheep dogs they probably really were. In battle array or guarding palace grounds, their ferocious appearance could undoubtedly be demoralizing to say the least.

Getting back to the Rhodesian ridgeback we should expect in them sturdy medium-large dogs of general all-round ability whose chief use in this country would be as companions unless trained for special purposes.

DOG'S

WORMING
By FARLEY MANNING
A puppy is thin, its coat is harsh, its appetite frail and finicky — or a grown dog develops the same symptoms. The "knowledgeable" neighbor who has had a dog, or two or maybe three in the course of his life immediately says "worms." So the suffering animal is dosed.

Indiscriminate worming has killed an enormous number of dogs, and still does. Before any dog is wormed, puppy or adult, the dog's owner should first make certain that worms are present; if they are, what kind of worms they are;
and that the remedy used is a specific of those particular worms; and that the remedy is properly administered.

The safest way to make certain of all these is to have a veterinarian make a microscopic examination of the dog's stool (more than once if the first examination discloses nothing but the symptoms continue), prescribe the remedy if one or more types of worms are discovered, and administer it if the treatment is dangerous.

Some dog owners are experience-enough with microscope and medication to do that satisfactorily themselves, but no novice is. All worm remedies are toxic — incorrectly used they can poison the

Johnson's Peek at Future Little Darker

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON, D.C. — The political world of dark-haired Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas had a smooth and pleasant look when he got up on the morning of July 2, 1955.
It's a little rougher now.

Any criticism of him on that day last July was minor. He wasn't quite 47 and he had gone a long way in politics; he was leader of the Democratic majority in the Senate.

He had just done a remarkable job—through conciliation and consideration for Democrats and Republicans alike — of getting both sides to work together and ram through one bill after another with a minimum of fuss.

He didn't go in for speeches himself. He paid attention to details. He had inexhaustible energy.
He never said he thought of the presidency. But if he did, he had plenty of time.

On the evening of July 2 he suffered a heart attack which almost killed him. The best tribute to his success as a Senate leader was shown in the days which followed when one senator after another filled the Congressional Record with praise of him.

Getting Democrats and Republicans to work together is not the way to create issues which can be used readily in a presidential campaign.

Since the Democrats don't control the White House, they must depend on their congressional leaders to produce a program which can be offered the voters.

Right after Congress came back this year Johnson began pushing a bill to take natural gas producers from under direct government price control. He may have felt he was putting his political right foot forward. His native Texas is loaded with natural gas producers.
In a way it turned out to be his left foot.

Sen. Francis Case (R-S.D.) disclosed a gas lobbyist and offered him a $250 campaign fund contribution which he turned down.
This made an investigation of lobbying almost mandatory. And, although the Senate passed the gas bill, President Eisenhower vetoed it.

A couple of regular Senate committees were anxious to begin a lobbying investigation but Johnson got the Senate to create a special committee for this task. That committee hasn't started work yet and doesn't know when it will.

Then the Senate took up a week with a debate on a constitutional amendment for changing the system of choosing a president. It was finally abandoned.

The Democrats have talked of making natural resources a campaign issue. They accuse the Eisenhower administration of giving them away.

But last week Paul Butler, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, gave Johnson and his fellow Texan, Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn, a startling nudge.

He said the Democrats would be in a weak position to complain about the Eisenhower administration's handling of natural resources unless they themselves did something.

Southern Democrats had been dog as well as worms — and any effective treatment for tapeworm produces such violent convulsions that if not administered by an expert the dog may be killed or suffer a ruptured intestine — extremely painful, hard for even the most cunning surgeon to treat, and often if not usually, fatal.

Some worms can be seen by the naked eye. Round worms and tapeworm segments can be. But unless worms are actually discovered to be present, by microscopic examination of the stool or otherwise, the chances are enormous that the trouble with the finicky eater, the thin, harsh-coated, debilitated puppy or grown dog, isn't worms but an improper diet.

GOING FREE—Jacques Morand, who assassinated Leon Trotsky 16 years ago, is scheduled to be a free man within a month. He has been serving a 20-year sentence in a Mexican prison for killing the man Stalin termed a traitor and spy.

TAKING OVER—Bishop Makarios of Paphos, Cyprus, has taken over the duties of Archbishop Makarios, recently deported to the Seychelles Islands by British authorities. Bishop Makarios has protested Makarios' exile to the United Nations and Great Britain's Archbishop of Canterbury.

mentioning Johnson as a possibility for president. His friend Rayburn came out for Johnson as Texas' "favorite son" and head of its delegation at the Democratic National Convention.

Then Texas Gov. Allan Shivers, who calls himself Johnson's furner, challenged Rayburn, called his proposal on Johnson a "cynical" effort to divide conservative Texas Democrats. This means fight over the delegation, with Johnson in the middle.

PEANUT SUPPLY SHORT
WASHINGTON, (UP)—The Agriculture Department had bad news for baseball fans today, but good news for cleanup men—the ones with brooms.

Peanuts are in "comparatively short supply" this year, the department said and consumption in the bleachers "probably will decline for the second consecutive year."

Would Curb Trade With Communists

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Investigating senators called top government officials today for questioning about efforts by this country to curb its allies' trade with the Communists.

Secretary of Commerce Weeks, Undersecretary of State Herbert Hoover Jr., and Foreign Aid Director John B. Hollister were called to a closed session of the Senate Investigations subcommis-tee.

At earlier public hearings before the subcommittee, which is investigating East-West trade, all three refused to produce some requested information about a 1954 agreement to relax free world trade with Russia. They said they would supply such data only at a secret session, and that to do so publicly would violate a U.S. agreement with some of its allies.

All three officials have testified this country reluctantly agreed to some relaxation to prevent the whole voluntary system of restrictions on Iron Curtain trade from collapsing.

Hoover testified Monday that the Chinese Nationalists have been trading with Red China, while exchanging shots in the Formosa Strait. He said such trade amounts to "quite a number of millions of dollars' worth of goods every year."

Yesterday, however, State Department Press Officer Lincoln White said he could find "no evidence of direct trade between Nationalist China and Red China." He said some such trade is carried on indirectly through Hing Kong, a British colony.

Canada Would Crack Indochina Stalemate

By WARREN ROGERS JR.
WASHINGTON, D.C. — Canada is seeking to push the Indochina stalemate off dead center far enough to hold talks about unifying elections—if not the election themselves.

Canada's Foreign Secretary
Lester B. Pearson is understood to be doing most of the pushing.
He dined here last night with Secretary of State Dulles and has arranged to confer in New York tomorrow with India's V. K. Krishna-Menon.

Canada and India are members of the international truce commission in Indochina. Communist Poland is the third member.

As things now stand, the biggest Indochina state of Viet Nam is divided between the Communist government of Premier Ngo Dinh Diem in the north.

Diem in strength. He has brown rebel-battered shakiness to peak reached with election this month of a constituent assembly in which his supporters hold most of the seats. It is expected to produce a constitution giving Diem much power.

The farm population of the United States has been reduced by 10 million since 1910 while the nation's population rose from 92 million to more than 165 million.
